

What Happens At The Art Center?

- Annual Members' Art Show along with Art Exhibitions throughout the year
- Art and pottery classes for all ages
- Art-centered children's activities
- Student Art Show and Photo Expo
- Our Annual Juried Art Show
- Sponsorship of art works in the Marlborough Town Hall Gallery
- Marlborough Elementary School Bands in concert
- And the 4th Friday @ the Arts Café concert series. These events feature outstanding local artists in a café-like venue. Check our website for details.

Member and Volunteer Opportunities

The Marlborough Arts Center is run by our Board of Directors; Board Meetings are usually held on the first Monday of the month at the Marlborough Arts Center.

There are numerous opportunities to help our Arts community. These include:

- Assisting one of our various committees that focus on future planning, publicity, membership, and classes.
- Assist with important recordkeeping tasks or assist our Treasurer or Secretary.
- Assistance at shows, concerts, and other events.
- Gallery and Art Park beautification.

You can be proud of the help that you are giving these community resources and have fun doing it!
