

Marlborough Arts Center, 231 North Main Street, Marlborough, CT 06447

June 2021

The Marlborough Arts Center cordially invites all regional artists to participate in our “3rd East of the River” Juried Art Show, of fine flat art, at 231 North Main Street in Marlborough, Connecticut. The exhibition runs from October 16 – October 30, 2021, offering a minimum of $1500 in awards. The Juror of Selection and Awards is David Allen Dunlop. David holds many prestigious awards as well as has been recognized in prominent publications, and galleries. He is an international instructor and Emmy award winner for his PBS television series.

In addition to online showing of all accepted work this exhibit will host a live reception On October 16th in the Marlborough Arts Gallery. Open to all, this promises to be a special evening to come “Meet the Artists”, family, and friends.

Full details on submission, the calendar, and entry forms can be found in the Prospectus. Receiving dates are October 3 and 4th We are anticipating a wonderful turnout; please kindly share this information with fellow artists and friends.

The Marlborough Arts Center is a non-profit regional center for the arts that is housed in the historic Charles W. Hall Gallery. It is surrounded by landscaped grounds and adjoined by an ART PARK that is in its second phase of development. The Arts Center is easily accessible from Routes 2 or 66, is handicap accessible, with ample parking. For more information about events offered at the Center, please go to www.marlborougharts.org; or leave a message at (860) 295-9389, and a member of the Board of Directors will return your call.

Please come join us for our “East of the River” exhibit; this is a wonderful opportunity to share your art and join us for an enjoyable evening at our Opening Reception.